7 - Please identify what you consider to be the strengths of this course.

Response Rate	4/13 (30.77%)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A beginner-friendly introduction into the workings of the American government without being bogged down by large amounts of historical context. • Explanations given to understand material. • Gave me more knowledge about American government. I knew the basics, but it is a more in-depth course than I expected. • Instructor is nice and concise

8 - Please identify areas where you think this course could be improved.

Response Rate	4/13 (30.77%)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The quizzes could stand to be slightly more thorough, as 3-5 questions per quiz is hardly a good coverage of important material for a given week. • More study time • I don't really enjoy group activities, but I do understand it is necessary. We have to learn to work together, and political science is a course where you have to get used to other's opinions and learn to work with each other to achieve the same goal. • More things on the slides

9 - What advice would you give to another student who is considering taking this course?

Response Rate	4/13 (30.77%)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If you attend the lectures and keep up with the assigned reading, as well as take good notes, you will not have trouble passing the course. • Take the course, it is very informative class. • Take the time to read the book and make notes of any questions you have. During lecture, don't use your laptop and take notes on paper. It will engage you more with the course. Ask questions and don't be afraid of sounding stupid. Someone else in the class might have the same question. • Do the reading

10 - The instructor made course expectations clear (e.g. objectives, policies, and assignments).
